

GSK PENSION FUND
(ALSO KNOWN AS THE GLAXO WELLCOME PENSION FUND)

INTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

In accordance with the Pensions Act 1995, the Trustees of the GSK Pension Fund have a formal Internal Dispute Resolution Procedure. The aim is to ensure that grievances are properly investigated and any disputes are resolved correctly, fairly and in good time.

Who may use the IDR?

The IDR covers any “disagreement” between the trustees and the people in the following categories:

- Scheme members (active members, those with a “deferred” pension or pensioners)
- widows, widowers, civil partners and dependants of members who have died
- prospective members
- anyone who has been a member or prospective member within the last six months
- anyone claiming to be in one of the above categories.

What is the procedure?

There are two stages.

Stage 1

If you have a complaint, then in the first instance it should be made in writing to the UK Pensions Director, at the address shown on the enclosed Stage 1 form.

A reply will be provided within two months of receiving your written complaint. If this is not possible, you will receive an interim response, explaining the reasons for the delay and giving you an estimate of when you can expect a full reply.

Stage 2

If you wish to appeal against the response, then you must do so in writing to the Trustees within 6 months of receiving the final Stage 1 response. A Stage 2 form will be sent out with the Stage 1 reply.

Can I ask somebody else to represent me?

Yes. You just need to give the necessary details on the Stage 1 and/or Stage 2 form, as appropriate.

Your representative can be a colleague or friend, a trade union representative, a Pensions Advisory Service adviser (see below) or anyone else you wish to nominate.

Is there anyone from whom I can seek help who is independent of the Plan?

The Money and Pensions Service (MaPs) is available to assist members and beneficiaries of the Plan in connection with difficulties which they have failed to resolve with the Trustees, and to answer general queries.

Their services are free to members of the public.

The Helpline number for MaPs is 0800 011 3797

The Pension Ombudsman can be contacted at:

The Pension Ombudsman

10 South Colonnade
Canary Wharf
E14 4PU

Telephone: 0800 917 4487

Website www.pensions-ombudsman.org.uk

These services are provided free to members of the public.

The Ombudsman is available to assist at any stage of a dispute, but will not normally intervene until you have first raised your complaint, in writing (letter, fax or e-mail), with the Plan (in practice this will be the plan administrator). Your approach to the plan administrator can be informal – it does need not to be under Stage 1 of the IDRPs.
